

Video summarization is a technique to create a short skim of the original video while preserving the main stories/content. There exists a substantial interest in a