We aim to learn a domain generalizable person re-identification (ReID) model. When such a model is trained on a set of source domains (ReID datasets collecte